Venice, April 29. On Tuesday last arrived here an Express from Poland, with that Kings Ratifications of the League lately concluded against the Turks. On Thursday the Sieur Gio Domenico Mocenigo parted from hence for Dalmatia, to command there the Forces of this State. The Preparations for the War are continued with very extraordinary diligence and application; And it's said the Fleet of this State will be ready to sail about the middle of the next month.

Dantzick, April 28. Our Letters from Cracow inform us, that the King, who continues at Fawarow, had received an account by an Express from the Castellan Lobazewski, that a new Body of 15000 Cossacks had put themselves into the Service of the Crown of Poland, and that they had offered to joyn with those commanded by Mobila, and to receive him likewise for their General; and that with this additional Force the Cossacks will make an Army of between 40 and 50000 men. These Letters farther tell us, that all things were preparing for the general Rendezvous of the Polish Army, which will consist of 60000 fighting men. And that there was a report that the Turks were marching to put a Convoy of Provisions into Caminiec, but that there did not appear to be any ground for it.

Vienna, May 4. Two days since repassed through this place Count Teckley's Deputies in their return home from Linz; with whom the Emperor hath sent the Adjutant General Hofman to require a positive answer from Count Teckley upon the conditions which the Emperor is yet willing to grant him. Our last Letters from Hungary assure us, that the Turks are drawing a considerable Body of men together near Buda, being resolved, as they give out, to relieve Newbenfel; and that the Count de Caprara having notice of it, has ordered more Forces to march and joyn those that do now block up the place, which according to the advices we have from all hands is reduced to the last extremity. The Imperial Regiments that are quartered in Upper Austria have orders to begin their march for Hungary; Though it's said that the general Rendezvous of the Imperial Army is put off, by reason of the backwardness of the Season, till the 28th of this month. Our Letters from Cracow inform us, that the King of Poland continued with the whole Court at Fawarow; but that he intended to remove from thence the beginning of this month, to be nearer his Forces in Podolia. The Fortifications of this City are carried on with the greatest diligence possible; and a great many Houses have been pulled down in the Suburbs since our Governors late return from Linz, which will very much add to the strength of the place.

Linz, May 6. The fourth instant arrived here an Express with Letters from General Caprara, who commands the Emperors Forces in Hungary, giving his Imperial Majesty an account that the Turks are drawing together near Buda, and that they have a design upon Gran, believing, that unless they can recover that place, it will be in vain to attempt the relief of Newbenfel; and that upon this advice he had sent orders to all the Imperial Regiments in Hungary, to put themselves in a readiness to march, being resolved to draw them together, and to march against the Enemy so soon as they began to move that way. And that at the same time he had sent to the Baron de Mercy who commands the Troops employed in the Blockade of Newbenfel, to inform him of the news he had received, and to advise him to be upon his guard. The Duke of Lorraine is expected here the 18th Instant from Innsbruck; and within few days after his Highness will be going for Hungary, where the general Rendezvous of the Imperial Army will be held the 28th of this month. We are told that orders have been sent to the Regiments of Mar, Nigrelli, and Statenberg, which are at present at Philipsburg to march for Hungary, and in their stead some of the new raised Regiments will be sent thither.

The Elector of Bavaria will, it's said, march with his own and the Troops of the Circles of Bavaria, and Franconia towards the Rhin.
